Jorge Santana-Torres Convicted of Murder in the 2nd Degree

Rochester, NY- Thursday 15, 2024, a Monroe County Jury convicted 36-year-old Jorge Santana-Torres of Murder in the 2nd Degree and two counts of Criminal Possession of a Weapon in the 2nd Degree for the murder of Alexis Mercedes.

On November 19, 2022, at approximately 3:00AM, Rochester Police Officers arrived to a house on Lochner Place in response to a shooting. Upon arrival, they located 35-year-old Alexis Mercedes inside the house with a gunshot wound to the head. He was deceased upon arrival.

After a thorough investigation, the Rochester Police Department identified Jorge Santana-Torres as the shooter. The following May, investigators located the defendant in Ohio. Rochester Police Investigators and members of the United States Marshals Violent Felony Fugitive Task Force apprehended Santana-Torres in Middletown Ohio, where he was arrested for the murder.

The case was prosecuted by Senior Assistant District Attorney Jonathan Jirik, of the Vehicular Crimes Bureau.

“Jorge Santana-Torres knew exactly what he was doing when he chose to shoot Alexis Mercedes before fleeing the state,” said Assistant District Attorney Jonathan Jirik. “During a party, the defendant put many lives at risk when he shot Alexis Mercedes, killing him. I want to thank the community for their cooperation and Rochester Police Department for their detailed investigation, resulting in today’s conviction.”

“Alexis Mercedes was enjoying a party with friends, when Jorge Santana-Torres arrived with the intentioned to kill him,” said District Attorney Sandra Doorley. “In a cowardly act, Jorge Santana-Torres murdered the victim before fleeing. I want to thank the Rochester Police Department and the United States Marshals Violent Felony Fugitive Task Force for apprehending this violent offender. Our community is safer with this Jorge Santana-Torres in the New York State Department of Corrections.”

Jorge Santana-Torres will be sentenced on March 20, 2024, in front of New York State Supreme Court Justice Renzi.
